Experience

Senior Consultant - New York City at Premier Group Recruitment
February 2018 - Present

I network extensively within the JavaScript community in NYC. Whether you're a contractor looking for your next project or a business looking to market for talent - I would love to speak with you.

My primary technical focus includes (although is not limited to):

- UI Engineering
- React.js
- Node.js
- DevOps

You can reach me anytime on +1 (347) 778 - 0748 or alternatively you can email snicolson@premiergroup.us.com. I look forward to working with you!

Principal Consultant at Parallel Consulting January 2017 - November 2017 (11 months)

Parallel Consulting is a multi-award winning, international recruitment consultancy. With over 12 years expertise within Analytics, Digital and Tech, we are the company to contact when you are looking for high quality staff or for the next step in your career.

I have been brought into Parallel to expand our UK contract offering with an initial primary focus on the London market. The main technical areas I can supply include: JavaScript, Front End, Mobile, DevOps, Python, Golang, Java, .NET, Senior Appointments, Testing & PHP.

Principal Consultant - JavaScript & Front End Contracts (London) at Opus Recruitment Solutions
January 2015 - December 2016 (2 years)

Opus Recruitment Solutions are the fastest growing recruitment company in the UK who are consistently ranking very highly in the most prestigious recruitment awards for the phenomenal work they do globally primarily within the IT sector.

I started at Opus as a Trainee Consultant and was promoted in less than a year to Senior, then shortly after was promoted to Principal Consultant. I won Consultant of the month multiple times, won New Comer of The Year 2015, was 1st top performer in the London IT team, and 9th top performer in the business, all achieved in record time.
